

Pentecost

Introduction

Three feast days were of prime importance to the Israelites: The Feast of Unleavened Bread (Passover), which celebrated their deliverance from Egypt, The Feast of Harvests, the first fruits of their labors sown in the fields, and The Feast of Ingathering when they harvested the fruit of their labors in the fields.

Today, the Christian Church still celebrates this third feast, which we call Pentecost. Pentecost means fifty (fifty days after Passover), and it commemorates the birth of the Christian Church.

Many centuries ago the prophet, Joel, prophesied of a time in the future when God would pour out His Spirit.

13. From whom did Jesus receive the Holy Spirit? _____

This was the same Peter, who not too many days before was hiding with the other disciples behind locked doors. Today he was boldly preaching to thousands of people.

The Scripture: Acts 2:36, 37

Peter continued: “God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ.” When people heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the other apostles, “Brother what shall we do?”

These first believers devoted themselves to the disciples’ teaching and to the fellowship and prayer. They held everything in common. The Lord added to their numbers daily. This was the first Pentecost - the birth of the Christian church.

Many who heard the disciples’ teaching believed and their number grew to about 5,000.

Personal Question: Have you received the baptism in the Holy Spirit? Describe your experience.

The disciples continued to teach and performed many miracles brought before the Sanhedrin for their teaching, Peter proclaimed:

The Scripture: Acts 4:12

“Salvation is from no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved.”

19. What was Peter’s proclamation? _____
_____

This is an important scripture to memorize. Be ready to repeat it to anyone who asks about your faith.

Even though the disciples were imprisoned and flogged, they praised God that they were considered worthy to suffer “disgrace for Jesus” name.

After Stephen, a man filled with the Holy Spirit and faith was martyred, the number of converts continued to grow. The Church in Jerusalem was persecuted and most of the Christians there were scattered throughout Judea and Samaria.

Obviously, one of the Holy Spirit’s empowerments is the ability to witness - to share Jesus with everyone we encounter.

Personal Question: Are you sharing Jesus with your friends and neighbors?

You can do this in your own neighborhood. One translation of Jesus’ command in Matthew 28:19 is, “Therefore, as you go, make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”
